

New Book by Country Music Legend DONNA FARGO Offers Words of Appreciation and Gratitude

Boulder, CO – Blue Mountain Arts is proud to announce the March 2010 release of I Thanked God for You Today: Words of Appreciation and Support for Someone Who Means So Much, a new trade paperback by Grammy award-winning performer and songwriter Donna Fargo.

Country music legend Donna Fargo—who is perhaps best known for her hit song “The Happiest Girl in the Whole USA”—has written this memorable keepsake to let life’s special people know how truly invaluable they are. This is a book people everywhere will want to give to friends, loved ones, or anyone who has touched their lives in an unforgettable way.

Fargo is the author of several books, and her writings have appeared on Blue Mountain Arts greeting cards, calendars, and other gift items. Her success as a writer comes from her unique ability to express feelings that are often difficult to put into words. In I Thanked God for You Today, Fargo’s inspiring messages, prayers for good health and happiness, and words of encouragement will lift readers’ spirits and remind them how much they are loved.

The book will be available in March in book and gift stores, as well as online at amazon.com, barnesandnoble.com, and other sites.

About Blue Mountain Arts

Based in Boulder, Colorado, Blue Mountain Arts was founded by poet Susan Polis Schutz and physicist/illustrator Stephen Schutz in 1971, and it continues today to be a thriving international publisher of books, greeting cards, calendars, and other products. The company is known for its innovative art styles, quality papers, unique production techniques, and ever-increasing selection of authors, artists, and product lines.

- Publisher: Blue Mountain Arts, Inc.
- ISBN: 978-1-59842-474-4
- Trade Paperback, 96 pages
- $13.95 Retail
- Available March 2010

For more information about this book, contact Patti Wayant at pwayant@sps.com or 303-417-6512

For order information, contact
Blue Mountain Arts Customer Service at 800-525-0642